Sir,

In submitting herewith the Vernacular correspondence ending with the Chikmagalur Amildar's report No. 1023 of the 25th January 1903 in re the recovery of Puduvat fund viz Rs 50/- with interest due to the temple of Sri Kodanda Rama Chendraswami at Hiremagalur by one Amble Krishna Sastri, I have the honor to state that, on the 24th August 1874, he executed a registered deed for Rs 50/- mortgaging his tiled house at Amble, Chikmagalur Taluk in favor of the said temple and that the continued payment of interest as stipulated in the bond till March 1897. The last payment of the interest viz Rs 12/- has been endorsed on the deed on 2nd July 1891 by Rangamma, late Taluq Sheristadar, as having been received from the executant's brother Sreekanta Sastri.

2. After the death of the executant a notice was on 11 5. 1901 given by the Amildar to his widow Kameswamma and brother Seekanta Sastri demanding the repayment of the loan in question. They however denied all knowledge of the transaction.

3. The Taluk Amildar reports that it is not possible to recover the loan if the mortgaged house estimated at Rs 120/- is not proceeded against.

4. Under these circumstances, Sanction may be accorded to institute an action in the Sub Judge's Court there for the recovery of the amount due to the temple and for remittance of Rs 25/- being drawn from the Savings of the temple amounting to Rs 201. 4. 8 on the 31st December 1902, to meet the expenses connected with the the institution of the suit.
